ASKS COUNCIL'S AID IN TETANUS INQUIRY.

Board of Health Unanimously Adopts Resolution Favoring Joint Investigation.

WOULD FIX RESPONSIBILITY.

Coroner's Verdict Considered Inadequate-Formal Communication to Be Submitted at Meeting This Afternoon.

A formal communication from the Board of Health, requesting the appointment of a special committee to investigate the cause of deaths from tetanus toxin and the methods applied in the preparation of the diphtheria anti-toxin, will be submitted this afternoon to the City Council. At a special meeting yesterday afternoon the board adopted a resolution petitioning for a therough inquiry. This resolution deines a plan whereby the special committee of the City Council and the Board of Health may conduct a joint investigation and simultaneously work independently. The investigation is to be directed by the committee and the board, but the board shall reach its own conclusions and the committee shall report its findings and impressions to the City Council, so that the Council may finally determine the original cause, fix responsibility specifically and deliver its judgment. Members of the Board of Health were called in special session by Mayor Wells. President Hornsby of the City Council. Health Commissioner Starkloff and Doctors Merrell and Chapman attended. Police Com-missioner Blong was absent. The resolution that was adopted was offered by Doctor Starkloff, after the board had discussed at length all phases relative to tetanus toxin and the making of diphtheria antitoxin and regarding the definite-ness of the Coroner's verdict. Doctor Starkloff's motion for adoption of the resolution was seconded by Doctor Merrell, and pre-

Agree to Ask Council's Atd. As the resolution implies, some members f the board were at first of the opinion that the Mayor should conduct the investigation, while others thought that the City Council should proceed, through a special committee. Debate demonstrated that ac-committee. Debate demonstrated that action devolved more upon the Council than upon the Mayor, and consequently it was generally agreed to call upon the Council to make a thorough inquiry.

In order to satisfy itself and to become familiar with all of the details concarning the presence of tetanus toxin in the diphtheria antitoxin and the preparation of the serum, the board concluded to conduct an investigation of its own.

An investigation by the board, members agreed, also appears necessary on account

An investigation by the board, members sgreed, also appears necessary on account of the Coroner's verdict, which, according to their views, makes them responsible for the deaths. Inasmuch as the investigation seemed compulsory, as well as desirable, the board decided that joint, but nevertheless independent, action by the Council committee and the board would save time and labor, and also dispense with the necessity of summoning witnesses a second gime.

The session was executive and lasted two ours. Doctor Starkloff and Doctor Merrell hours. Doctor Starkloff and Doctor Merrell spoke carnestly for an open meeting, but President Hornsby moved that the board go into secret session. The motion was sec-onded by Doctor Chapman, and was carried unanimously. Mayor Wells favored an ex-ecutive session, for the reason that he be-lieved a decision could be reached more rap-lidy thereby.

neved a decision could be reached more rapidly thereby.

"The investigation will be thorough," Mayor Wells stated, after adjournment.

"We intend to probe to the bottom and to ascertain all facts in connection with responsibility and the methods that prevailed in the preparation of the antitoxin. The Board of Health is held responsible by the Coroner's verdict, and I, as a member of the board, must clear myself. All of the other members take the same view. We propose to conduct a thorough investigation."

Starkloff Resolution Adopted.

Doctor Starkloff s resolution follows:
Whereas, During the past month a number of deaths of children have occurred in this city from tetanus, or lockage, following the administration of diphtheria antitoxin manufactured or prepared by the city of St. Louis and distributed to paysicians without charge therefor; and whereas, After an inquest held upon the bodies of the children so dying the City Coroner declared in his official verdict timat the presence of tetanus toxin in the diphtheria antitoxin showed negligence on the part of the Health Department in the preparation of said antitoxin and in the issuance thereof, without, however, specifying any particular person or persons connected with or in the employ of the Health Department as the party or parties guilty of such negligence; and Whereas, it is of the utmost importance that the investigation should not cease at the point where it was left by the Coroner, but should be continued until the negligence which the Coroner deciares existed has been fastened upon some particular person or persons, or if in point of fact no negligence did exist that the Health Department be relieved from the imputation and column new resting upon it; and

Whereas, No particular officer or employe of the city having been charged with missonduct or neglect of duty, there is no action for the Mayor of the city to take in the premises; but

Whereas, the Municipal Assembly, or either branch thereof, has under the Charter the power to make any investigation in which the interests of the city to take in the premises; but

Resclved, by the Hoard of Health by the appointment of a committee, to meet in joint session with said board for the purpose of making a thorough, searching and complete investigation into the cause of the deaths aforesaid, the methods used in the preparation and the insue of diphiheria an

SHOOTS WOMAN AND ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

W. E. Brown Attacks Mrs. Kelly at Insane Asylum Gate, Then Wounds Himself.

William E. Brown, an insurance agent living at No. 2212 Bismarck street, last night attempted to kill Mrs. Anna Kelly, a laundress employed at the Insane Asylum, and then tried to end his life.

He fired two shots at the woman, which took effect in the abdomen. Her injuries are not necessarily fatal. Brown shot himself in the breast. His condition is serious and the chances are slight for his recovery.

The shooting occurred about 11 o'clock at the Arsenal street entrance to the Insune Asylum. Four shots were fired by Brown, and, according to the statements of Fatrolman Sheehan, who was a short distance away, the revolver was pointed at the woman when he grabbed the weapon from the man's hand.

Brown admits having shot the woman and says he shot himself. "If it kills me I will be better off," said Brown on the operating table at the City Hospital. Beyond that he would make no statement, except to say that he was a married man and had three children.

Mrs. Kelly was removed to the Female Hospital. She said she had known Brown for six or eight years; declared that he was jealous of her and had threatened to injure her before. She has three children living in Carondelet. She has been employed for eight months in the laundry at the Insane Asylum and lived there. She is 28 years

Officer Sheehan was a short distance from the gate when he heard three shots in rapid succession. Before he reached the gate a fourth shot was fired, and when he grabbed Brown the latter had his 35-caliber revolver pointed at the woman's head. The woman was screaming and her cries attracted the attention of the attendants of the asylum. who went to her assistance.

Mrs. Kelly was carried into the asylum and an examination disclosed that one bul-let had entered between the ribs on the left side and passed through the fiesh. The other bullet wound was on the right side of the abdomen. The bullets did not pene-trale year deep. trate very deep.

These suggestions have been made in the course of social conversation when international affairs were referred to. The serious situation of Engiand, the splendid courage of the Boers and the necessity of early peace have been repeatedly pointed out.

No direct appeal for American intervention has been made by any of the foreign representatives, but the intimation has been sufficiently plain that action by this Government would receive the approval and support of European Powers.

OF ARTISTS' GUILD.

Initial Reception at Stranss Studio Attended by Fashionable Crowd of Art Lovers.

His instincts for line and for color is of a very high order, in my estimation. It is true that in his other pictures, his landscapes, and when he introduces figures, the decorative tendency remains almost the keynote. But the element of decoration should enter into any composition. In Stopdard this feeling controls him. Why shouldn't he allow it free play?

Estmund H. Wuermel has a picture—"Moonlight" which interests me greatly. It has genuine depth and the true sentiment of moonlight. The composition may be fanciful or the artist may have seen what he has painted—I don't know. It is a true interpreted.

There is much else to note: Robert Bringhurst's sculpture, Miss Pfeifer's and Miss Sharman's work, Mrs. Blackman's studies, Wolft's landscape. As I said at first, the exhibition is interesting, very interesting.

The initial reception was conducted by the Union Musical, the largest organization of musicians in the city. Music was a feature of the evening, and the numbers were fornished by representative members of the Union Musical. Miss Stark, planist, rendered Chopin's waitz No. 1 in C sharp minor and two other selections from Moszkowski. Mrs. George C Carrie, accompanied by Mrs. C c Allen, sarg. One official yesterday said that he believed the time had come when trade would seek the right road; that the interests are being merged so that the profits would go to the right persons, arguing also that there has been an oversolicitation of patronage. "We desire," he said, "to cut off all passes, You don't know how many conches it takes to carry 'dead-heads'. The public doesn't know it. We think the cash system is best. All officials do not believe the cutting off of the traveling agents is the right thing, but they follow this opinion by saying: "Whatever the presidents get together and decide upon must go. Many of our agents do us great good, but when the presidents speak, that's law. They can do anything by agreement. They have accomplished many things by agreement. THROUGH RATES ABOLISHED.

line on the St. Joseph and Grand Island Hailroad.

The order has not yet been received at Union Pacific headquarters, but it has not been unlooked for. The effect of it will be to cut Missouri River points south of Omaha from a great deal of business that has heretofore gone that way from Nebraska points, as it will have the effect of removing this territory from competition by those points.

The road was once a very important integral of the Union Pacific, but is now practically under the control of the Burlington road. At a recent election two of its direction representing the Harriman interests were dropped, and this is thought to be an explanation of the order.

On Trip of Inspection Over the Iron Mountain.

President George J. Gould of the Missouri Pacific, with Mrs. Gould and his daughter. Marjerie, with a party of Gental system officials at St. Louis, departed at 19 o'clock yesterday morning for a trip over the Iron Mountain. Other lines belonging to the system may be inspected, and the trip may extend over two weeks.

The officials accompanying Mr. Gould were Vice President Warner, General Manager Russell Harding, General Superintendent Cotter, Freight Traffic Manager Stith, General Passeiger Agent Townsend and General Auditor Schuyler. These officials probably will return to St. Louis as saon as the Iron Mountain is gone over, and other officials from Southwestern points may accompany Mr. Gould over the other lines.

Mr. Gould is very much pleased with St. Louis, and he comes here often. He says it seems like another home to him, both because he likes the city and because he has such large interests here. Mr. Gould is watching the "biggest railrond deal in the world" and thinks it is very interesting.
